1. Travel Authorization

Business travel must be approved before booking when the trip meets the company's travel-approval requirements.

2. Air Travel

Employees should select reasonable economy-class airfare for standard business travel. Exceptions for premium cabins require documented approval under the travel approval process.

3. Lodging

Employees should use company-preferred hotels when available and select reasonable lodging consistent with the applicable city rate guidance.

4. International Travel

International business travel may require additional security, immigration, tax, or regulatory review before departure.

5. Safety

Employees should follow Corporate Security travel advisories and required registration procedures for designated destinations.
